CHANGE LIVES

LIVE UNITED.

A positive role model can influence you for a lifetime. More than 30 years ago John Miller started as a Little Brother through Big Brothers Big Sisters. Today, he is Vice President and Chief Intellectual Property Counsel at Rockwell Automation, and Vice Chair of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metropolitan Milwaukee's board. He says his experience as a Little Brother shaped him into who he is today.

“I received so much from people throughout my life. I had several nudges in the right direction over the years. Really there’s no other way I can think of to repay those who helped me than to give back and volunteer.”

Your gift to United Way connects hundreds of thousands of people to the building blocks to a good life:

PROBLEM:

Today's young Americans are less likely to earn a diploma than their parents, a distinction not shared by any other industrialized country.

SOLUTION:

United Way is changing that reality by boosting every child's chance for success in school, work and life.
